External classification scheme

External classification schemes are controlled vocabularies outside of Mandala. Mandala lets you tag your images using these classification schemes. Two schemes which have already been defined and are available for use are:

- Getty Thesaurus of Geographical Names
- Library of Congress Subject Headings

If you have an additional external classification scheme you want to use in Mandala Images, write to mandala@virginia.edu to start the process.