

Child Page

In Mandala Texts, a child page of a page is a subpage or section that falls under the page. A top page can have many child pages, also called children. For example, in the table of contents below, "Introduction," "Chapter 1," and "Conclusion" are children (or child pages) of "Book."

- Book
  - Introduction
  - Chapter 1
  - Conclusion

Related step-by-step guides:

- Understand the Structure of Texts
- Add Sections to a Text