Candlestick Chart

Spreadsheet Format

Each row represents a candlestick on the chart. Learn more about using spreadsheets with Visuals at Use Spreadsheet Data.

	Column 1	Column 2	Column 3	Column 4	Column 5
Data Type	plain text, number, date, date time, or time of day	number	number	number	number
Contents	The label on the x-axis. X-axes can be categorical (plain text) or continuous (number, date, date time, or time of day).	The minimum value for the candle. This marks the beginning of the candle's "tail" on the y-axis. Note: • The label for this column will appear in the legend – other column labels will not appear	The opening value for the candle. This marks the beginning of the candle's body on the y-axis.	The closing value for the candle. This marks the end of the candle's body on the y-axis.	The maximum value for the candle. This marks the top of the candle's "wick" on the y-axis.
Required	x	x	x	x	x

Customization Options

Learn about options at Common Customization Options.