

Class Collection Walkthrough

Here's a real-life example of Audio-Video in the classroom:

Dr. Jongmin Lee uses Audio-Video to display his student's video theses.

First, he makes a class collection and adds his students. His students then upload their videos. The workflow function lets him flag submissions for editing.

This guide walks you through his process.

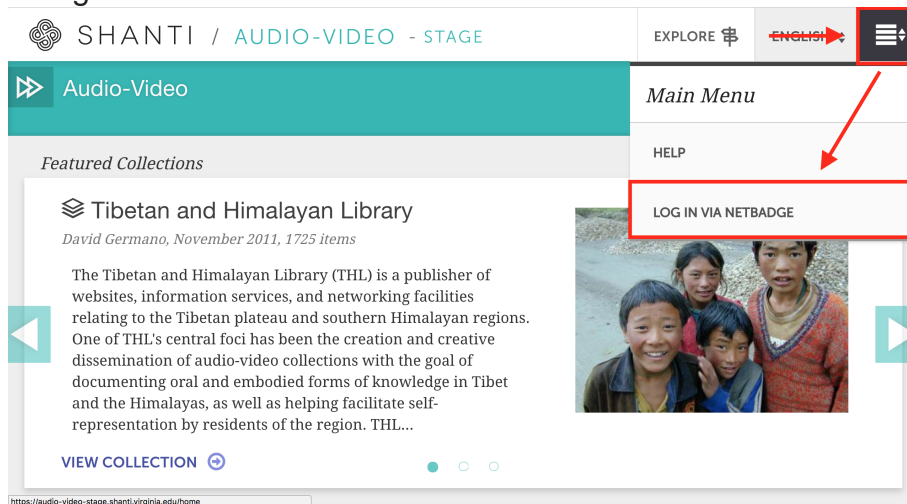

For Instructors

If you're an instructor, here's how to make a class collection in Audio-Video:

1. Sign in to Audio-Video
2. Make your collection
3. Open your collection
4. Add your students
5. Monitor collection submissions

1. Sign in to Audio-Video

Click the Main Menu icon () in the top right corner of the page. This opens a navigation menu. Then, Log in via Netbadge.

Enter your Netbadge credentials to finish signing in. You can now create your collection.

2. Make your collection

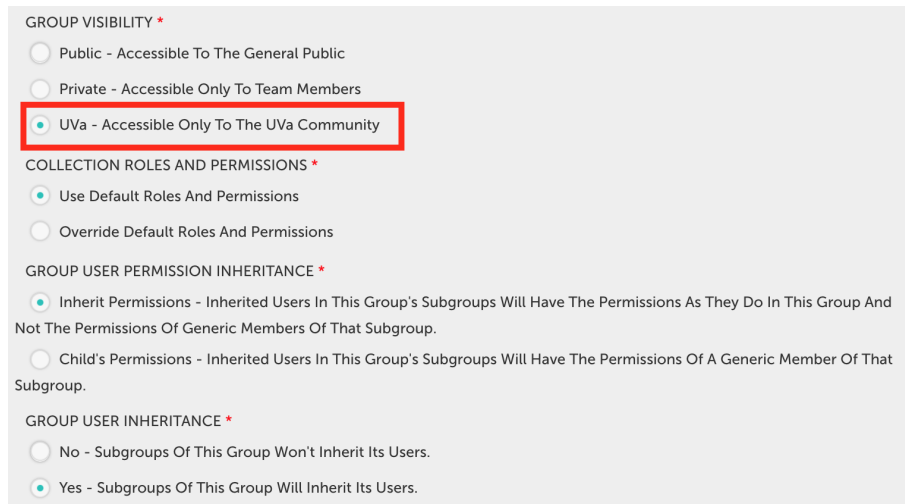

Add New Collection on the right side of the Audio-Video page.

A form with information for your new collection will open.

Enter a title and a text overview of your collection. You can also add a featured image.

Check the privacy settings below the overview.
